

Church of the Assumption Women's Lenten Retreat

Come join your sisters in Christ on Saturday, March 3rd at 12:00 noon (light lunch) followed by a retreat from 1-4 pm in the Church of the Assumption Chapel, 76 Evergreen Road, New Egypt based on St. John Paul II's extraordinary document "On the Dignity and Vocation of Women." In a world where we so often receive distorted messages about where women's value lies, come and hear the truth about the profound dignity which God has created each of us with and the unique way that we are called to radiate His love in our families, our Church and our culture through the gifts of our womanhood.

The retreat will be offered by Emily Sullivan. Emily is a graduate of the great books program of Thomas Aquinas College and currently works for the Thomistic Institute based in Washington DC. She and her husband Joe live in Bucks County, PA and have three little girls.

This afternoon of learning, prayer and reflection is a beautiful way to enter into the season of Lent.

All ladies are welcomed to attend. A free will offering will be taken. Contact Teresa Heyer at (609) 893.4152 by February 24 to RSVP.
